Wild PNG takes adventurous people to adventurous places. The places we visit are remote and require long periods of rough travel to get to and as such there are risks associated with this adventure. This puts us a long way from medical help. There is a simple hospital located in Alotau and a better one located in Port Moresby and our Wild PNG Guides are all first aid trained, but if you are suffering from any pre-existing medical condition, this is not the adventure for you. Most activities have some danger attached, such as snorkelling, paddling a dugout canoe or riding a sailing canoe at sea or even taking our fast dinghy from one place to another. We cannot and do not accept any liability for your safety whilst taking part in a Wild PNG adventure. If you want guaranteed safety you should stay at home. If you're happy to accept risks either known or unknown, then join us for the adventure of a lifetime !

You will have to provide a signed copy of this disclaimer and liability release form PRIOR to your booking being accepted by Wild PNG.
